FIRST NIGHT OF CHANUKAH
Wednesday, November 27
Join us for our Chanukah celebration on Friday, December 6 (after Chanukah)

FROM THE RABBI ...
Sandford R. Kopnick

GIVING THANKS AT CHANUKAH?

There are a few challenges connected to the Hebrew month of Kislev falling so much earlier in the Gregorian calendar than is common. Chanukah (our favorite time of Kislev) begins on November 27—as early as you'll ever find it. That means, on Wednesday night of that week, we'll light the first candle of Chanukah, and the next night we'll celebrate Thanksgiving. Gevalt!!

Many Jewish families have non-Jewish relatives in their midst, and look forward to Thanksgiving being a wonderful "neutral" holiday where we can be thankful for what we have in common, without having to feel any differences. Yet, many (and I hope most) will find themselves beginning their Thanksgiving festivities—not just with Turkey (or Tofu), pumpkin pie, and a bit of football—but with a Chanukiyah (menorah for Chanukah), too.

Here are some suggestions for ways to combine these two times:

a. Be sure to kindle your Chanukiyah on Thursday the 28th in a way that is inclusive and without family strife. If that means prior to leaving for the Thanksgiving celebration, then be sure to be safe!

b. Remember that the theme of Chanukah is "rededication." Therefore, consider having everyone go around the room prior to eating your Thanksgiving meal with an eye toward saying what they are thankful for, and one part of life/society we should "rededicate" ourselves to improving.

c. Bring a dreidle, and consider playing a bit with all who assemble—so that the commericals of the football game have some fun, too!

d. Remember to join us for our "post-Chanukah" dinner and celebration on Friday, December 6. When everyone returns from traveling for Thanksgiving, or is ready to eat more, we'll be celebrating Shabbat together, with a Chanukah-style flair!

Remember that it will also be challenging to have Chanukah end 20 days before Christmas. Aside from the fact that people who exchange presents on the first night might be forced to pay retail prices (Heaven forbid!), some may feel particularly excluded as holiday parties and school holiday programs that try to be inclusive will feel oddly "late" this year. This could be very difficult for some children.

Consider planning an activity for the week our neighbors celebrate that is social action oriented. While we may not be celebrating Chanukah at the end of December, we can certainly celebrate the opportunity to do mitzvot, and help add some light to the darkest time of the year! Whether helping to babysit at your friends' church, doing a toy drive in the neighborhood, donating time or clothes to a shelter, etc—it is always good to help others during their important times—thus allowing us to fulfill Isaiah's idea that we be "a light unto the nations."

It'll be OK, having Thanksgiving and Chanukah at the same time. And don't worry, next year Chanukah begins on December 17 (still the 25th of Kislev). May the lights of the holiday shine brightly—as we give thanks for this wonderful country!

B'shalom,

Sandford R. Kopnick, Rabbi

JOIN US AT HUC ON SATURDAY NOVEMBER 2

Our rabbinic intern, Carolan Glatstein, will deliver the sermon in the HUC-JIR Scheuer Chapel (3101 Clifton Ave.) on Saturday, November 2, 2013 at 10:30 a.m. THERE WILL BE NO TORAH STUDY OR SERVICE at Valley Temple that morning.

When our schedule allows, we have tried to create a custom of supporting our intern by combining our service with the Hebrew Union College Shabbat morning service. Cantor Yvon Shore will be leading the music, and Carolan and some classmates will lead the service, too.

RABBI RON KLOTZ TO TELL STORIES

Rabbi Ron Klotz, former Camp Director of Goldman Union Camp will be our "storyteller in residence" November 15-17, 2013. Among his many talents, Ron is a great story teller, and campers and staff looked forward to his special skill each Friday night while at GUCI. Now we can all experience some great stories from our tradition by a very accomplished storyteller.

Ron will tell a story or two during Friday Night Live on November 15 at 7:30. He will be the featured story teller at the Tot Service on November 16 at 10:00 a.m., and lead a lunch-and-learn for adults (middle-school and older children also welcome), at 11:30 a.m. (Reservations required, lunch is $5.00/person). Then, on Sunday morning, Ron will tell stories in the religious school.

We are grateful to the Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati for sponsoring this special weekend with a very special friend of our congregation. Please plan to be with us for as much of the weekend as you can!

The GOD Upgrade with Rabbi Sandford Kopnick

Tues., Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Belief in God can evolve as Judaism evolves. This is a primary focus of the book, The God Upgrade by Rabbi Jamie S. Korngold. We will explore some of the ideas from this book, as we explore our own ideas about God.

MEN'S CLUB COMINGS AND GOINGS

The first Men's Club coffee/breakfast is set up for Sunday November 3rd. The Club will go to the Panera Bread in Finnytown from 10 -11 30 am.. Please see Aron Schneider on Sundays during religious school for further details.

Candle Pin Bowling is set for January 26, 2014, Details will follow soon.

Saturday evening, March 8, 2014 - Men's Club Family night at the Cyclones - Details to follow soon.

Once again, The Valley Temple Men's Club provided the ushers for our High Holy Day Services and they did an excellent job! Scott Steinberg, VP Men's Club, was a superb Chair for the ushers and did a great job of lining people up and conveying their responsibilities. We thank those who participated and helped make service transitions pleasant and orderly: Bob Hiller, Kerry Rabe, Brian Meeron, Rob Weikel, Dan Perlmutter, Bill Clark, Elliot Spieler, Sam Lobar, Scott Steinberg, Jeff Schlaeger, Aron Schneider, & Elizabeth Woosley. Thank you!

Remember to become a dues paying member of the Men's Club — $36 dues checks made payable to The Valley Temple Men's Club, and left in the Temple office Men's Club mail box. You can also mail it directly to the Temple. Dues are through June, 2014, and, combined with the dues' of others, will help offset some of our events, fully fund the annual Picnic/BBQ, and, eventually, will also serve as a fund to support other Valley Temple programs. We look forward to a terrific year for the Men's Club!

Regards and have a have a wonderful Thanksgiving from the Men's Club!

5774 חֲנֻכָּה Nov. 27-Dec 5, 2013 Chanukah 2013

Chanukah is an eight day festival that we don't find mentioned in our Bible. The word Chanukah means rededication and commemorates the victory of Judah the Maccabee and his followers over the forces of the Syrian king, Antiochus IV. When Judah and his brothers recaptured the ancient Temple in Jerusalem in 165 B.C.E., their eight-day rededication ceremony was the first Chanukah. The story is told in the First and Second Books of the Maccabees, which form part of the Apocrypha--sacred literature of Judaism that is post-Biblical. The Temple had been Hellenized--transformed from uniquely Jewish practices to heavy Greek influence. The Maccabees recaptured the Temple, restored the sacred rituals and rededicated the Temple. It is this we celebrate on Chanukah.

The Talmud teaches of a legend that in rededicating the Temple, a cruz of oil could only be found to last for one night--but it miraculously lasted for eight nights, and that is why Chanukah is celebrated for eight nights. While most love this story, some believe the festival of Sukkot, was the festival used (albeit late) for the rededication of the Temple service.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר (שֶׁל שבת) וְשֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.

Baruch atah Adonai, Elohienu melech ha-olam, asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu lahadlik nehr shel Shabbat v'shel Chanukah.

Praised are you, Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, who sanctifies us with commandments, and commands us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) Chanukah.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לַאֲבוֹתֵינוּ בַּיָּמִים הָהֵם בַּזְּמַן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, sheh-asah nisim la'avoteinu, bayamim ha-heym, bazman hazeh.

Praised are You, Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, who made miracles for our ancestors in their days and now!

On the first night include:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁהֶחֱיָנוּ וְקִיְּמָנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לַזְּמַן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, she-hechiyanu, v'kiymanu, v'higiyanu lazman hazeh.

Praised are You, Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this very special time.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN RELIGIOUS SCHOOL?

ALISON WEIKEL,
DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

Introducing. . . the MADRICHIM!

Think back to when you were between the ages of 14 and 18 years old. . . What were you doing at 9:30 on a Sunday morning? If your answer is that you were inspiring young Religious School students while honing your own people and teaching skills, then you might have been part of a madrichim (teaching assistant) program at your temple!

Allow me to introduce the wonderful high school students who as madrichim, partner with the teachers each week to help create the experience your children are having in Religious School.

PreK: Josh Beasley and Monica Valentini
Kindergarten: Ashley Schlaeger and Madeline Weikel
1st grade: Adrian Niedermann and Rachel Spohr
2nd grade: Alex Kopnick and Matt Lobar
3rd grade: Danny Niedermann and Josh Weikel
4th grade: Adam McCarrick and Alex Woosley
6th grade: Alex Spohr

Here's what some of the teens wrote when they signed up for this experience:

"When I went to Sunday school as a student, the madrichim made it fun and made me feel welcome and I want to do the same with students this year."
"I have always felt connected and a part of Valley Temple and this gives me a way to really express my Judaism."
"I am fun and energetic and the kids like me."
"I will be there every Sunday with a smile on my face and do whatever I can do to help the teacher."
"I love working with kids and I love the temple atmosphere."
"I am really supportive and willing to help the kids step by step if they need it."
"I was a shy little girl in Religious School and I know how it feels to be uncomfortable in a high-energy environment. I know how to treat nervous/shy kids without upsetting them because I was one of them."
"I am good at going with the flow."
"I love being Jewish and doing Jewish things."

Each madrich (boy) or madrichah (girl) is a high school student who attends Kulanu (the combined Religious School for high school students of Valley, Wise, Rockdale and Sholom) and has expressed an interest in working with children. These teens wake up early every Sunday (no small task) and work with their partner teachers to help kids feel comfortable, stay on task, and complete projects, while showing the younger ones that it is "cool" to be in Religious School and involved in temple life. Madrichim also offer a unique perspective when we reflect on the morning's classes. They often bring insights that help us make the experience better for the next week.

Take a moment next Sunday to introduce yourself to the teen teaching assistants in your children's classrooms. They are a vital part of our Valley community and we are fortunate to have them on Sunday mornings!

B'shalom,
Alison

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE

Joe Slade. Goldman Union Camp Assistant Director, will be visiting Religious School on Sunday, November 24. Meet with Joe and hear about our wonderful camp

MEGAN SASS TO BE FEATURED AT GRADES 4-6 RETREAT

Valley Temple alum, Megan Sass, will be the artist-in-residence on the Grades 4-6 Retreat November 8-10 at GUCI. Megan is the daughter of Mark and Jan Sass and currently lives in New York where she is pursuing an acting and writing career. As part of her work, Megan has been trained by the nationally acclaimed Storahtelling program. This program helps bring the Torah alive with innovative study techniques utilizing drama and creativity.

The retreat is for all Valley Temple students in Grades 4-6. The bus will leave Valley at 4:00 p.m. and return on Sunday morning at Noon. While at camp, students will celebrate Shabbat together, learn about the Torah with Megan's creativity, and play together. In addition, the chaverim m'yisrael (Israeli post-high school students visiting for the year) will help serve as counselors during the weekend. Alison Weikel, Director of Education, and Rabbi Kopnick will also be present for the retreat.

For more information, contact Alison Weikel at 513-761-3555.

WOMEN OF REFORM JUDAISM stronger together

Wow! We've had some impressive attendance at our last 2 meetings!

A huge thanks to Rabbi and Nancy Kopnick for opening up their beautiful home to Sisterhood for our Annual Women of Reform Judaism/Valley Temple Sisterhood Brunch!

Can you believe Chanukah is right around the corner? Amanda Stein has a fun project planned for Chai Life! On November 3 at noon (right after Religious School), Chai Life will be making Chanukah cards - this is always a fun project for kids and adults! If you are interested in joining us, contact Amanda at amanda2829@gmail.com. The cost is $5 per child, $10 per family, this covers pizza and supplies. Membership to Chai Life is $9 per child, $18 per family.

Mark your calendars for our next meeting on November 10. We will be celebrating Chanukah. Please bring a gift valued at no more than $10.00 for our fun filled gift exchange.

The Sisterhood is having their annual Chanukah sale on November 17 and November 24. Be sure to stop by for some gelt! If you need 20+ dreidels or gelt, please contact Cindy Cronin through Valley and let her know so she can make sure you have your order filled.

Rockdale Temple has generously invited our Sisterhood members to a weekend of events celebrating the 100th anniversary of Women of Reform Judaism. Starting Friday, November 15, there will be a Shabbat dinner with Rachel Lambermont, a national WRJ board member. Cost is $15. The weekend continues Saturday with pot luck, training, and more. Sunday the movie "Killing Us Softly" will be shown. Please let Laura Lobar know if you would like to attend or contact Rockdale Sisterhood directly. This should be an exciting "charge-your-batteries" connect with our sisters weekend!

A great way to support the Sisterhood is be to register your Kroger card to the Sisterhood through the Kroger Community Rewards program. Just register at krogercommunityrewards.com and help Sisterhood support Valley Temple programming just by doing your shopping! Please contact Chrissy Knarr with any questions.
