FROM THE RABBI ... Sandford R. Kopnick

ISRAEL AND HAMAS

This summer, four of our students (two college and two high school) attended programs in Israel. Two were part of the Cincinnati Jewish Federation's Workum program, and our high school students were on their camp trips to Israel which was heavily subsidized by the Cincinnati Jewish Foundation. We are so blessed in this community to have such a strong financial commitment to our students' participation in these programs. But, no subsidy is able to take away the real anxiety created this summer as Hamas and Israel traded attacks. One Friday Night in July, a few of our parents were at services as we talked about whether their children would remain in Israel. Real fear. Real rockets. Real life.

Soon after that oneg-shabbat discussion, Egypt brokered a cease-fire. Contrary to what we've been taught to expect from Israel, Prime Minister Netanyahu immediately accepted the terms of the cease fire and stopped any counter-attacks. Finally, Israelis made a smart PR move. The rocket fire from the Palestinian areas is massive and unacceptable. No other country would allow it, and neither should Israel. However, Israel is rarely judged by such standards, and agreeing to the cease- fire without knowing whether the other side would accede helped put the spotlight where it belonged.

Our kids are encouraged to get to know our ancestral homeland—not for its politics, but for its connection to our Bible and the development of our faith. It is an opportunity to connect with other Jews, and to see Judaism as it can be in a 24-hour/day reality. The view from a bomb-shelter is not quite what we had in mind.

This summer will be known for killing three Israeli students, and the most un-Jewish response some zealot perpetrated when killing a Palestinian student. It will be known for Israel being under fire again...and the Palestinians continuing in a desperate situation that has bloody casualties, but no real advances. And while our students may return home with a unique perspective of the daily life of Israelis, I would have rather someone simply told them about it. After all, there are countless examples of similar moments.

Our fervent prayer is that our people know safety in Israel. May our support of our brothers and sisters who toil for Israel's security know our support as family support. And regardless of our politics, may we continue to ensure Israel's security by supporting those organizations who work toward the kind of Israel we each envision. Finally, may the Palestinian people find leadership willing to accept the reality of Israel so that Israel can finally stop defending itself, and start working toward the reality of an independent state for the Palestinians. Only then, will we see the Biblical promise of Israel as a land flowing with milk and honey.

Have a good month!

B'shalom,

Sandford R. Kopnick, Rabbi

JESSICA WAINER JOINS TEMPLE STAFF

Jessica Wainer, a rising fourth year student at HUC-JIR has been appointed as our music intern for 2014-15. Jessie will also be the rabbinic intern at Temple Shalom of Louisville, KY. In her role as music intern, Jessie will help Rabbi Kopnick coordinate the Friday Night Live band, teach religious school music, song-lead and lead music at a few services each semester, and coordinate the Teen Tefillah team.

Jessie hails from the Chicago area and has experience song leading and working with music at URJ Olin Sang Ruby Union Institute Camp. She has a love of music and will bring some new energy to many of our programs. We are grateful to the Cincinnati Jewish Foundation for funding this Rabbinic Fellow experience.

WASHINGTON TRIP FEATURES U.S. HOLOCAUST MUSEUM

Eight travelers joined Rabbi Sandford Kopnick and Director of Education Alison Weikel at the U.S. Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. last month. The trip was subsidized by the Cincinnati Jewish Foundation.

Temple members arrived in D.C., attended a brunch at a nearby restaurant and then spent the majority of the day at the museum, which was opened 20 years ago. Following the museum, participants visited the World War II, Vietnam, and Lincoln Memorials, and enjoyed a mideastern dinner before returning to Cincinnati. It was a very meaningful day of learning about our history and each other.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN RELIGIOUS SCHOOL?

This summer, while Religious School classrooms are quiet, I have spent some time thinking about what it means to be a learner. I have met with and talked to other Jewish educators, traveled and visited other schools, read about theory and innovation in the field of Jewish education, and did some imagining and planning with Rabbi Kopnick and our intern, Brian Nelson. I take the stance of a learner, not just over the summer, but every week as we share Jewish experiences with our students. I believe we all have things to learn not only from our tradition, but from each other. I will be bringing all of this together with our wonderful teachers and madrichim as we begin a new year as a learning community in September.

I am excited to attend the NewCAJE (Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education) conference this month where I will brainstorm and share with the other Grinspoon award winners. Valley will be receiving a stipend and mentoring to bring exciting educational programs to Religious School. Stay tuned for the details!

B'shalom,

ALISON WEIKEL RECEIVES NATIONAL GRINSPOON AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN JEWISH EDUCATION

We are excited to inform you that Alison Weikel is one of 6 educators from North America to receive an award from the Harold Grinspoon Foundation as a National Educator of Excellence. Alison was nominated by Rabbi Kopnick for the incredible work she has done for our Religious School. She was selected by the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati as the local winner a couple of months ago and Grinspoon Foundation moved her forward into a smaller group that they were considering for the North American award winners.

Quotes from her nominators:

Rabbi Kopnick stated, "Alison is a remarkable educator. She has inspired our faculty to be more reflective in their teaching which has resulted in a much warmer and exuberant school. She has vast knowledge of educational theory and hands-on programming which has inspired our faculty to achieve in ways previously unreachable."

Secondary nominator, Laura Beasley remarked, "If I were to describe her in one word, it would be AMAZING. She is warm and nurturing to the children in her school, and totally accessible to parents. She brings a lifelong love of learning and teaching to our school. She is always there to help students, parents and teachers. Her attitude is serious but fun and she passes it along to everyone she meets."

Billy Bie and Linda Kean presented this award to Alison during our annual meeting in June. She was completely SURPRISED! In honor of this award, Alison received national recognition and numerous gifts which included a financial stipend as well as attendance at the New CAJE 5 Conference in Los Angeles.

A hearty Mazel Tov to Alison and The Valley Temple from the Jewish Educators Council, the Jewish Federation of Cincinnati, and all of her Valley Temple family. This award confirms what we, at Valley Temple already knew, that Alison is an amazing educator and a wonderful director of our Religious School!

MEN'S CLUB COMINGS AND GOINGS

The Valley Temple Men's Club met for chicken wings and trivia on July 16th at Buffalo Wings & Rings in Finneytown. Congregant Brian Meeron hosts trivia there every Wednesday night.

Other events this quarter include the annual Temple picnic on Sunday, August 24th at 2pm in Sharon Woods. Once again we will be gathering at the Honeysuckle Hill Shelter for food, sports, and good conversation.

On September 21st the Men's Club will host Dads & Donuts before religious school. All students and fathers are invited for breakfast beginning at 9:15 am. Following that at around 10 am, the Men's Club will hold its semiannual general meeting open to all male Temple members age 18 and older. This morning is a great opportunity for those not as involved to learn about what Men's Club has to offer.

stronger together

Our combination Estate/Rummage Sale was a smash! Thanks to everyone who contributed, from donating items, to sorting and organizing throughout the week, to working at the Friday Estate sale and the Sunday Rummage Sale. It really was a community effort and this year's sale was our most successful yet! Our unsold items were picked up by St. Vincent DePaul, so we were able to end with a mitzvah. Thanks to Chrissy Knarr and her amazing committee for their hard work to make this project a success.

Summer's in full swing! Hope everyone is enjoying the sunshine & warmth!

Valley Temple Sisterhood will again be sponsoring a purse auction this fall on Saturday night, November 15, SNAG-A-BAG II. Besides purses to be auctioned we will be raffling "Pamper Baskets". We would like to ask all of you to help by donating new or "gently used" purses for this event. We will also need pamper items such as lotions, shower gels, fragrances, makeup, etc. If any of you receive "gifts with purchases" at the various makeup counters and do not use them, they would make a great donation for this event. Additionally, we will need gift cards from hair salons, nail salons, & spas. If you frequent one of these, would you ask for a gift card donation. Donation letters and thank you letters are available if you need them. Please contact Davine Levy @513-370-7579 or Rhoda Ulas @ 513-702-2340 to help, to donate or with questions.

We are excited to be selling jars of honey in celebration of the High Holidays. More information will be coming soon.

Sisterhood dues bills will be sent out in early September. Your prompt response to this mailing will help Sisterhood keep costs at a minimum.

There is a Sisterhood meeting on Sunday, August 17 at 10 am - hope to see you there!

Enjoy the rest of your summer!
