FROM THE RABBI ...

Sandford R. Kopnick

Whether your candidate won or lost the recent presidential election, it cannot be denied that the campaign created significant concern among many in minority communities. The rhetoric may have been an effective strategy to turn out voters who have felt disenfranchised with the way the global economy and/or the American economy has evolved (or devolved, depending on one's perspective), but many different types of people felt targeted by the way the campaign unfolded.

Jewish history has taught us what happens when rhetoric turns into policy. When Jews have been the target of a government's restrictive or oppressive policies, we needed the help of those who were not the target to speak up for what was right. There are thousands of people wearing safety pins on their garments because they feel targeted and unsafe. We Jews can help.

As Jews, we are commanded to seek peace, to love our neighbor as ourselves, and to be our brother's keeper. We cannot only take care of ourselves, but we have to be, as Isaiah said, "a light to the nations."

Whether it was a campaign ploy or deeply felt beliefs, the campaign seems to have given permission to normalize prejudicial talk after this country came close to removing it from the public space. That students in some schools walk through the halls with signs chanting "white power," or primary grade children taunt an Hispanic girl with the slogan, "build the wall," cannot be allowed to be permissible.

Regardless of party affiliation, we are all obligated to fight vigorously for each human being's dignity and respectful treatment. We cannot lower ourselves to paint all of one religion, sexual orientation, gender, or race with the same brush. We experienced this type of hatred and oppression, we have been the scapegoats for more than one society's problems, and we cannot allow others to endure this pain just because we are not currently the target.

So if you voted and your candidate lost—fight on for justice. If you voted and your candidate won—accept the victory with the grace that motivates you to insist that no campaign ever sink to this level again. We all should pray for God's blessing on the United States, and for the strength to create bridges, where it now seems gaps are wider than ever.

As we approach Chanukah at the end of December, we pray that we all will rededicate ourselves to remembering the stranger, fighting for what is right, and infusing the season with the light of justice as it shines brightly in all homes.

B'shalom,

Sandford R. Kopnick, Rabbi

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN Religious School?

If Not Now, When?

Imagine having the opportunity to be immersed in something interesting and challenging with people who are similar to and different from you facilitated by diverse, world-class thinkers... Since June of last year, I have had the good fortune to study with a cohort of educational leaders and amazing faculty at the Mandel Teacher Educator Institute (MTEI) in Chicago. I am able to do this study thanks to generous grants from the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation and the Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati.

At MTEI, I have been working with my colleagues and the faculty to consider the big questions in Jewish education and how I can facilitate transformational learning at Valley for its teachers and students. You can read more at mtei-learning.org.

Right before I traveled to Chicago in November, I had been thinking about a particular Jewish teaching from Pirkei Avot and how it relates to what we do in Religious School.

"If I am not for myself, who will be for me? If I am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when?" (Avot 1:14)

Pirkei Avot literally means "Chapters of our Fathers" and is often translated as the "Ethics of our Fathers." "That 'verse' as we might call a piece of Torah is called a mishnah and Avot 1:14, in its multi-layered glory has been on my mind as I also consider one of the greatest challenges of sharing Judaism in a once-or-twice-a-week setting. How do we dig into the many teachings our tradition offers while also convincing learners and their families of their relevance?

This space in the bulletin, weekly communication from your children and their teachers, and semester progress reports can give you a glimpse into what your children are learning and experiencing on Sundays and Tuesdays. One of the ways to extend your children's learning is to attend Family Education sessions and experience the learning together. (See p. 4 for upcoming dates.)

You can also remind your children what is Jewish about everyday activities and special occasion events. Do you ever prepare a meal for neighbors or friends who are sick and deliver it to them? You are practicing bikkur cholim (visiting the sick). Do you recycle or make choices about sustainable food and household products? You are heeding the commandment ba'al taschit (do not destroy). Do you have a daily practice of saying the Shema, perhaps at bedtime with your children? That first word, shema, is the command to hear or listen. Thus, even the ordinary act of listening, really listening to each other is Jewish.

We are currently collecting chicken noodle soup and new, unwrapped toys to benefit our partners at the Valley Interfaith Food and Clothing Center. By participating in this program, we have an opportunity to live in the tension inherent in the questions asked by our Jewish founders—self, others, how and when-- as we teach our children to stand up for themselves AND to stand up for others with generosity and compassion. Thank you for supporting the work we do in Religious School.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Jon Hoffheimer

Dear Congregants,

Last Fall the squirrels packed away their food for the winter. Birds that stay in the area do likewise. Somehow they know when to do this and they remember where they put things! Winter comes on and they are ready. We, too, are cyclical. Not so much about storing up food. I think we are cyclical in our interest and participation in Temple life. There are times we need Valley and there are times not so much. The High Holidays draw us in, and then perhaps we fall back. Yet Valley must be consistently here and available for each of us. When we go on to other "things" and our lives fill up, we still need to store up the nuts and seeds for another day.

Pick a Valley Temple event or two that you normally would not attend and give them a try. Come for a Shabbat service. You may find something for yourself. Even if you do not, simply by being here, you may be helping someone else.

There is a saying that when you give of yourself, you will receive far more than you give. Let's find out if that is true.

Jon Hoffheimer
President, Board of Trustees

Denim & Diamonds

Mark Your Calendar for Denim & Diamonds 2017!

When: The evening of Saturday, March 18th, 2017

Preparations are underway for our biennial Denim & Diamonds; an evening of trivia, friendship, and food. The evening will include a silent auction featuring items from our community and our city. Bring your friends and family along!

We are looking for items to round out our silent auction. Items such as gift cards and certificates make a great contribution. If you are able to provide these or any other items, please get in touch with Wendy Walsh at Valley Temple for information on making a tax-deductible charitable contribution.

Early in November a small contingent from our Sisterhood travelled to Louisville for the Central District Convention. While there, they had the opportunity to pray together, attend presentations and workshops, and enjoy meeting women from all over the region. At our last meeting we got to hear about the wonderful experiences offered at this biennial conference. The great news is that we don't need to wait two more years to be involved, because we do many of those things here at Valley all year round!

We support the Temple and Religious School in a variety of ways, from helping with camper scholarships to giving each family a challah at Rosh Hashanah to assisting with expenses for the Religious School and Youth Group. We pray together when we attend regular services or those for Bar and Bat Mitzvah, when we plan and participate in a Friday night Shabbat service, even when we share our thanks and concerns while filling our Tzedakah box. We contribute to our greater community when we collect items to donate to Caracole or Bethany House. And before you think we're all business, we have plenty of opportunities to simply have fun being together!

Here are some of the plans that are in the works:

- Gift exchange at the December 11th meeting – bring a $15 gift and join the fun!
- In January there will be an amazing chance to create a beautiful piece of Judaica. Tell your friends and come make a glass mosaic menorah, mezuzah, or dreidel – more information to come about the Gary Rosenthal glass project!
- The next Sisterhood Book Club selection is The Nightingale, by Kristin Hannah (discussion in March).
- Join us for a cooking class or challah-making event!
- We're even planning a few ladies' nights out, with jewelry-making or pottery-painting, or another fun-filled get-together!
- We're working on getting a group together to learn Mahjong!

With such a variety of spiritual, fundraising, and social events, there's something for everyone - come to the next meeting and see!

L'hitraot! Til we meet again!

Valley Temple Youth Group

Winter Kallah is coming up soon - January 20-22 - and is held here in Cincinnati at HUC! NFTY-OV Winter Kallah is a weekend of learning, growing, laughing, and building meaningful relationships with other Reform Jewish teens. The entire weekend of programs, activities, prayer, and fun is planned by teens in collaboration with HUC. Valley had nine teens at Fall Kallah... can YOU help us get double-digit attendance? Find more information and register NOW at www.ohiovalley.nfty.org/ or contact Brian Meeron.

NFTY678 Cincy Sunday Funday Hey Valley 6th, 7th, and 8th graders!

Hang out with your Cincinnati friends and make some new ones from ALL 4 Reform congregations! This awesome event will be on Sunday, December 11 (from 12-2pm) at Wise Temple, and is complete with activities to meet new people, have fun, and enjoy games, challenges, and more! You will enjoy a pizza lunch and delicious desserts. Cost: $10 (includes lunch and epic program). Register at www.ohiovalley.nfty.org before Wednesday, December 7th!

POTENTIAL HOST FAMILIES!!!!

Can your family help host four teens for Winter Kallah? Dorm space at HUC is limited, and we rely on local families to help host teens from around the Ohio Valley region. Previous host families have reported very positive interactions with the teens, while helping to ensure their safety and enjoyment before and after Kallah hours. Please consider helping out! More information can be found at www.ohiovalley.nfty.org/housing. Thank you for your help!

MEN'S CLUB

The Valley Temple Men's Club is back and better than ever! Through meetings and consultations, these goals have been laid out for the next year:

- Get people to come inside the Temple – make VT more than a dropoff lane;
- Have events to draw people in;
- Continue to have camaraderie while supporting some needs of the Temple;
- Have more frequent Sunday breakfast get-togethers;
- Expand our membership – we would love to have a larger diversity of ages, interests and ideas.

PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THESE UPCOMING EVENTS:

Monthly trivia at Wings and Rings in Finneytown – Wednesday, December 14th

Candlepin bowling – Sunday, January 29th

Super Bowl party – Sunday, February 5th (w/families)

Cincinnati Cyclones game – Saturday, February 25th (w/families)

Denim & Diamonds

Denim & Diamonds is Saturday, March 18th, with Jeff Schaelger and Aron Schneider as emcees. Come battle your friends in trivia, eat, bid on cool stuff, and laugh a little bit!

Brotherhood Work Weekend at GUCI – Weekend of Friday, April 28 – Sunday, April 30

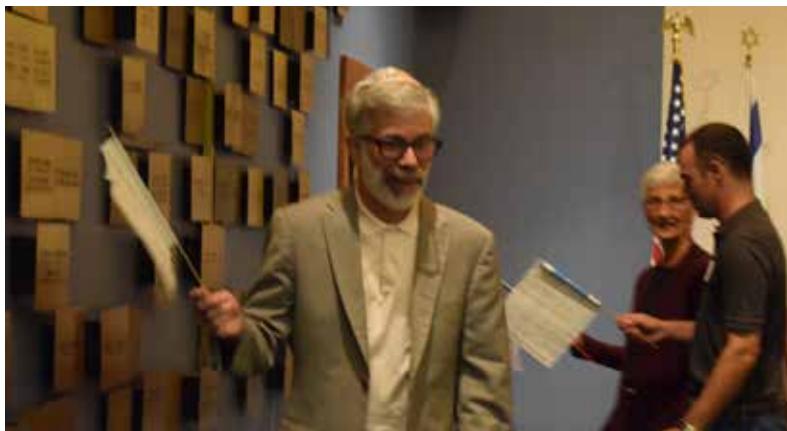

Other events being planned – or why not send us your ideas?!?!

Thanks to all the VT brothers and board members who gave their time and energy to ushering for the High Holy Days!!!

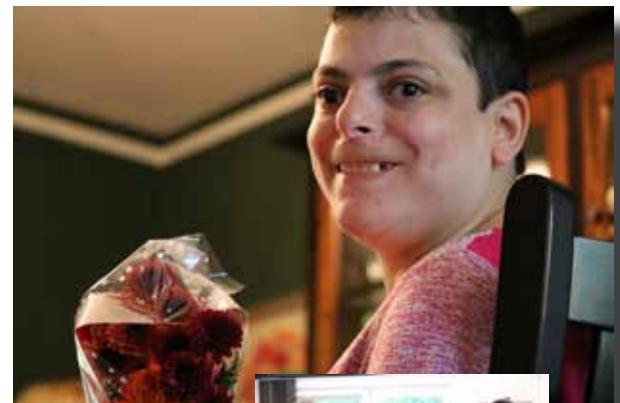

Feeling left out? Wanna join the VT Men's Club? Please contact Jeff Schlaeger, President.

Happy Chanukah 2016/5777

Light the first candle on Saturday, December 24, 2016

Light the shamash (the helper candle) first, using it to kindle the rest of the Chanukah lights. As you do, say or sing:

ברוך אתה ייִהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְשָׁנוּ בְמַצּוֹתֵינוּ, וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tsivanu l'hadlik ner shel Chanukah.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who hallows us with mitzvot, commanding us to kindle the Chanukah lights ברוך אתה ייִהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לְאָבוֹתֵינוּ וְאָמוֹתֵינוּ בִּימִים הָמִינִים בֶּזְמָן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, she-asah nisim laavoteinu v'imoteinu bayamim hahaeim baz'man hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who performed wonderous deeds for our ancestors in days of old at this season.

For first night only:

ברוך אתה ייִהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שְׁהַחֲנִינוּ וְקִיְמָנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לַזְמָן הַזֶּה.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, shehecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higianu laz'man hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

Join us for a pot luck
